Satellite office for the Reno County Department of Aging will be open monthly at Wesley Towers

Reno County, Kansas – February 20, 2023

Wesley Towers will be hosting a satellite office for the Reno County Department of Aging one day each month. Any citizen over age 60 or their caregivers may meet with John Eberly or Denise Pina, Reno County Social and Human Service Assistants, from 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. the last Tuesday of each month. The office will be located in the main Towers building at 700 Monterey Place. The Department of Aging serves as a centralized source for information and referral regarding issues affecting seniors and assists with all aspects of Medicare and other benefits.

Appointments are encouraged but walk-ins will be welcomed on a first come, first served basis. Please call 620-694-2911 to schedule an appointment or for more information.
