STEFFEN SWORN IN AS RENO COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Reno County, Kansas - November 9, 2020 - Dr. Mark Steffen was sworn in as the Reno County District 3 Commissioner on Monday afternoon at the Reno County Courthouse. The ceremony was presided over by District Judge Trish Rose. Steffen was appointed by the Republican Party to fill the seat of the late Bob Bush, who passed away on Oct. 12.

Bush had served on the Reno County Commission since 2016, and was not seeking reelection due to a long standing illness. Daniel Friesen won the seat unopposed in the Nov. 3 election, and will take over in January.

Steffen's first official commission meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 9:00 a.m. The meeting can be viewed live or on-demand on the renogov.org website, and will be rebroadcast on the Hutchinson City cable channel 7.
